Francisco Benitez
Affiliate Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature

Fields of Interest
20th Century  Asian American  Comparative Literature  Critical Theory  Film/Cinema  Global and Transnational Studies  Literature  Philippine and Filipino American  Postcolonial  Southeast Asian

Biography
Ph.D., University of Wisconsin, 2004

Francisco “Kiko” Benitez is assistant professor in Comparative Literature. He received his PhD from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and his BA from Cornell University where he graduated with honors. His research interests include the multiple and often conflicting formations of modern subjectivity and the nation-state in the literature and film of insular Southeast Asia in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. His current research is on the constructions of subjectivity in the Philippine awit and the Malay/Indonesian syair during the emergence of print-capitalism and nationalism in insular Southeast Asia.

Source URL: https://complit.washington.edu/people/francisco-benitez